

2004 Community Scholars

- Fannie Smith, Prattville, Midwifery for exhibit at Peoples Historical Museum
Odessa Settles and Kevin Carroll, African-American gospel groups in Alabama
Linda Vice, Thomasville and Judy Martin, Tuscaloosa, Folklore fieldwork for the Alabama Tombigbee Tourism Initiative
Wanda Robertson, Florence, Medicinal use of wildflowers and herbs
Randy Arnold and Amy LeePard, Tuscaloosa, Family farming
Deborah Casey, Eufaula, Farm buildings and their related farming traditions
Trudy Brower, Hoover, Birmingham's Unitarian community
Matt Downer, Ider, Traditional music of Sand Mountain
Diane Gerard, Mobile, Documentation skills to teach to her history students at the Alabama School of Math and Science
Cathy Green, Gadsden, Decoration days. and other aspects of local African-American culture in Gadsden
Russell Gulley, Fort Payne, Small community radio stations
Charles Kelley, Birmingham, Hispanic traditions in Alabama
Bill Martin, Gaylesville, Folklore fieldwork for the Interpretive Center of the Little River Canyon National Preserve
Tatum Preston, Birmingham, Documentation of quilts in the collection of the Birmingham Museum of Art
Kerry Reid, Grove Hill, Documentation of "Little Croatia" for the Clarke County Historical Museum
Ana Self Schuber, Tuscaloosa, Documentation of quilters for the West Alabama Quilt Guild
Susan Thomas, Mobile, Gulf Coast foodways
Raul Valdez, Birmingham, Hispanic traditions in Alabama
Amy Pierce, Birmingham, Folk art walking sticks and other crafts for Children's Hands-On Museum
Lori Sawyer, Atmore Cultural traditions of the Poarch Creek Indian community

2006 Community Scholars and their projects

- Jake Fussell, Shoals area fieldwork
Karren Pell, Oral Histories in Capitol Heights neighborhood, Montgomery
Sheila Limerick, Document Black Belt Culture for library's special collections
Janice McDaniel, Exhibit for Mule Day and May Fest on NW Alabama traditions
Evan Haarbauer, Documentation of community of artists who do festivals
Mary Latimore, Develop exhibits for Southern Rural Black Women's Initiative
Annie Cooper, Research for reunion of all Colberts in Colbert Co and vicinity
Ellen Mussleman, Festival Community at Moundville Archaeological Park
Sara Sawyer, Creek Indian stomp dancing
Marcus Johnson, Brass Band tradition in Mobile
Shirley Baxter and Willie Wilchie, Video on The Tuskegee Spirit
Mary Lou Mallette, Photo Exhibit & documentation of Gulf Coast fishing industry

Carolyn Brown-Perez, Video on 4th Avenue District in Birmingham
Wanda Johnson, Oral Histories of African-American Catholics in Baldwin County
Carole King, Documentation of quilts discovered in Alabama Quilt Project
William Allen, Documentation of Coal Mining in Blount County
Trey Bunn, Development of Archive of Alabama Folk Culture
Gail King, Documentation of "Black Dutch" in Northwest Alabama
Kaci Hildreth, Interviewing railroad workers for Railway Museum
Thomas Kersen, Incorporating folklore fieldwork into college anthropology classes
Dewanna Banks, Labor lore of paper mill workers
Donna Hickman, Religious roots of Shoals Music

2008 Community Scholars and their projects

Amy Beach, Fishing families-Bayou La Batre
Emily Blejwas, Black Belt Traditions for Civil Rights Heritage Trail
Amanda Blum, Small town banks, specifically Alabama Exchange Bank of Tuskegee
Steve Dark, Potters of Baldwin County
Patrice Dees, Wilcox Co. culture (for oral histories by students)
Jacquelyn Denson, Oral history project for Wilcox County High School students
Elizabeth Donovan, Sewing Traditions of Florence, AL
Holly Fowler, Rural traditions of Escambia/ N.Baldwin Counties
Whitney Green, Inventory of Black Belt Artists
Stephanie Jackson, Instructional materials for Mobile 's African-American Heritage Trail
Connie James, Documenting Choctaw County Traditions
Tyler Kittles, Bayou La Batre culture
Maggie Legg, Produce a play about Civil Rights Area in Lowndes County based on oral histories
Israel Lewis, III, West African Culture in the Southern Experience
Barry Little, Collecting stories of the Alabama Gulf Coast Area
Megan Loper, Oral histories of families effected by violence
Annette Otts, Rural folk structures of Northwest Alabama
Patsy Peoples, Documenting history and culture of Florala with her students
Sylvia Stephens, Document the work and life history of quilter Mozell Benson
Ashley Tillery, Museum on Main Street exhibit on spirituals and William Dawson
Joseph Trimble, Collecting Alabama folktales
Donna Turner, Oral histories of mining families of Acmar, AL
Cristina and Barbara White, Oral histories in Loachapoka
Tonja Young, Oral History project of Daphne, AL