

Photos by Steve Granberger

21st Annual

ROTUNDA SINGING

Saturday before the 1st Sunday in February
February 3, 2018

Foyer

Alabama Department of Archives and History
624 Washington Ave
Montgomery, Alabama

Come and sing from all four oblong shape-note hymnals currently used in Alabama ...
Christian Harmony; Colored Sacred Harp; Cooper Revision; Original Sacred Harp

Join us on Saturday from 9:30 to 3, then enjoy a scenic drive north to the Burnham & Brown Memorial, Jacksonville or south to Traveler's Rest, Samson on Sunday.

For more information, call Bill & Nancy Hogan (334) 514-9742, will_muse@yahoo.com or Joey Brackner (334) 242-4076, x-225
joey.brackner@arts.alabama.gov

Come out of hibernation early — we hope to see you there!

Barbecue Lunch ($7 donation is requested)

-Map on back – handicap accessible entrance is from Adams Street –

Note: Adams is now a two-way street.

To continue to sing on Sunday, February 4th:

- 1) For the Central Music Convention, Traveler's Rest Church, Go south down US231 to Troy, SR87 to Samson, right on SR52 right on CR-17 / Traveler's Rest Rd or
- 2) Drive north to Jacksonville, AL, for the Burnham and Brown Memorial Singing, Wesley Center.

