

Tentative Schedule

Wednesday, June 19

- 1:00 p.m. Welcome
- 1:15 p.m. “Our Music Heritage from the Highlands of Alabama” Northeast Alabama community College: The Appalachian Teaching Project, 2007.
- 2:00 p.m. Welcome to DeKalb County / Northeast Alabama and the Southern Appalachians response to documentary and question and answer with Dr. David Campbell and Hank Willett.
- 2:30 p.m. Break
- 3:00 p.m. “Preserving Appalachian Fiddle Traditions at the Center for Popular Music. Gregory Reish, PhD. Director of the Center for Popular Music, MTSU, Archiving Collections
- 3:45 p.m. Archive of Alabama Folk Culture and Other Collections in Alabama
- 4:00 p.m. Break
- 5:30 p.m. Joyce Cauthen., "The Biggest, the Funniest and the most Soul-Inspiring Event in the History of the Fiddle and Bow": The DeKalb County Fiddlers' Convention Old-Time Fiddle Part I; Northeast Alabama; Fiddlers and Fiddlers' Conventions
- 6:00 p.m. Break
- 6:15 p.m. Joyce Cauthen. “Way Down in Alabam: Finding Old-Time Fiddlers and their Tunes”
- 7:00 p.m. Back Porch Concert: South Arts Master Artist, Matt Downer followed by Alabama Folk Heritage Honoree, James Bryan
- 8:30 p.m. Impromptu duos; open mic; or guests, etc.
- 9:15 p.m. Depart for DeSoto State Park

Thursday, June 20

- 7:00 a.m. Breakfast
- 8:40 a.m. Depart for the Canyon Center
- 9:00 a.m. Folklore Fieldwork: Steve Grauberger, Deb Boykin, and Joey Brackner
- 10:00 a.m. Instructions including all documents, recording devices, formats, etc.
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Recording and Presenting Traditional Music: Radio Programs and CD Production Steve Grauberger, Deb Boykin, and Kevin Nutt
- 11:30 a.m. Design and Produce your own show!
- Noon Lunch
- 1:00 p.m. Digital Humanities Workshop: Jesse Karlsberg, PhD
- 2:30 p.m. Designing and Producing your own project!
- 3:00 p.m. Break for touring and recreation
- 5:30 p.m. DeKalb County Theatre: Sweet is the Day documentary
- 6:30 p.m. Dinner served/ available
- 7:00 p.m. Cold Mountain Soundtrack: clips and discussion with David Ivey
- 7:30 p.m. Journey Proud episodes: Camp Fasola and New Book Gospel with Joey Brackner, Steve Grauberger, and David Ivey comments, questions, and answers.
- 8:45 p.m. Depart for DeSoto State Park

Friday, June 21

- 7:00–8:45 a.m. Breakfast and depart for LRCC
- 9:30 a.m. Introduction to Arts and Education
- 10:15 a.m. Arts in Education Part I – These Are the Roots of Our Lives by Russell Gulley and Chris Roberts (FPHS GUITAR CLASS AND HISTORY TEACHER)
- 11:00 a.m. Arts in Education Part II: Dr. James Akenson, The Big Picture, Teaching Strategies, and Materials for Roots Music in the K-12 Classroom.
- 11:45 p.m. Lunch served
- 12:30 p.m. Break for touring
- 2:00 p.m. Fort Payne Opera House: A Conversation With and About The Louvin Brothers: Past, Present, and Future Legacy. Moderator James Akenson, PhD.
- 4:00 p.m. Tour and Talk The Fort Payne Opera House: Cultural Legacy and the Jimmie Rodgers Concert 1932 by James, Akenson, PhD.
- 6:00 p.m. Vintage 1889: Introduction. Dr. Akenson
- 6:30 p.m. Dinner served
- 7:00 p.m. Concert: Kathy Louvin

Saturday, June 22

- 7:00 a.m. -- Breakfast
- 9:00–11:00 a.m. Fieldwork
- 11:00 a.m.: Graduation and Go Home!