

COUNTRY MUSIC: TRADITION AND MORE

KATHY LOUVIN

Singer, songwriter, producer, Grammy Award winner, and daughter of Ira Louvin.

SOUTH
ARTS

2:00 –5:00 p.m. FORT PAYNE OPERA HOUSE. Public Discussion on family traditions with Kathy Louvin and surviving siblings of the Louvin Brothers. Enjoy music and storytelling, followed by a tour and talk about Jimmie Rodgers in Fort Payne.

6:00 p.m. VINTAGE 1889. Concert introduction, dinner, and live music featuring Kathy Louvin.

Funded by a grant from the Alabama Humanities Foundation, Dr. James Akenson of Tennessee Tech University will provide introductions and serve as a moderator. A consummate scholar and educator on country music, Akenson is co-founder and co-chair of the International Country Music Conference.

Registration—see link to Eventbrite on “Research” page
www.alabamafolklife.org

THANK YOU

City of Fort Payne, Landmarks of DeKalb County, and Fort Payne Main Street

CONTACT

205.956.9888

alabamafolklife@att.net
www.alabamafolklife.org